The Fine Arts Group of The College Club will continue its Museum Series of talks by Marguerite Munger, Supervisor of Club Activities at the Cleveland Museum of Art, on Thursday April 7th. This lecture will center around the special exhibition HORTICULTURAL MOTIFS IN ART - an exhibition of fine flower and fruit prints which are supplemented with actual flowering plants and shrubs as well as arrangements of flowers and fruit provided by the Garden Center of Greater Cleveland.

The programs for the Group have been arranged by Program Chairman Miss Frieda Fliedner along with Mrs. Russell Weisman, Mrs. M. W. Phelps, Mrs. H. S. Frasher, Mrs. Robert T. Dorsey, Mrs. S. A. Williamson and Mrs. Theron S. Jackson.

On May 5th this group of the College Club, which has been using the Museum's services to clubs for five years, will visit the MAY SHOW.
